FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Davis Malm Welcomes Attorney Donna M. White to Firm

Boston, MA, June 4, 2012 — The Boston law firm of Davis, Malm & D'Agostine, P.C. is pleased to announce Donna M. White has joined the firm as a shareholder. Ms. White will practice in the Business Law and Trusts and Estates practice areas. She concentrates her practice in all areas of estate and trust administration and estate, gift, and generation-skipping transfer tax planning, with particular emphasis on leveraged gifting techniques and other wealth transfer tax planning strategies involving trusts and limited liability companies. Ms. White's practice also includes planning and drafting for domestic asset protection and advising clients on prenuptial agreements.

Ms. White writes and lectures frequently on a wide range of trusts and estates topics, including estate planning and estate and trust administration. She has conducted seminars and published articles for organizations such as Massachusetts Continuing Legal Education and the Boston Bar Association, among others.

"I am excited to join Davis Malm," said Ms. White. "I have long admired the firm's solid reputation and commitment to its clients and I look forward to practicing law with my new partners and colleagues."

Prior to joining Davis Malm, Ms. White was a partner in the Trusts & Estates Practice Group at Pierce Atwood LLP. Ms. White earned an LL.M. in 1996 from Boston University School of Law, a J.D. (cum laude) in 1989 from Suffolk University Law School, and a B.A. (cum laude) in 1985 from Harvard University Extension School.
