ELIZABETH J. SCHLESINGER JOINS THE ESTATE PLANNING DEPARTMENT

The St. Louis office of Lewis, Rice & Fingersh, L.C. is pleased to announce that Elizabeth J. Schlesinger has joined the Estate Planning Department as an associate. Ms. Schlesinger was formerly associated with the law firm Bryan Cave LLP.

“Elizabeth is a fine addition to our department. She brings a breadth of experience and a fresh perspective. We are very pleased to have her join our team,” said Marian “Bo” Mehan, Co-chairman of the Estate Planning Department.

Ms. Schlesinger is experienced in assisting clients with pre-death estate planning and wealth preservation as well as post-death trust and probate administration. She handles the drafting of estate planning documents including medical directives, durable powers of attorney, wills and “pour-over” wills, various trusts, and ante-nuptial agreements. Ms. Schlesinger drafts business succession documents, private loan and refinance documents, and basic real estate documents including private leases and various deeds. She also has experience establishing business entities such as LPs and LLCs, and overseeing the administration of irrevocable trusts, estates, and probate.

Throughout our Firm’s history, Lewis Rice attorneys have made excellence the foundation of our practice. Founded in 1909, a century of service has given us the experience, resources and tools to serve our clients’ dynamic needs. Our diverse team of over 150 attorneys provides counsel and solutions for the challenges facing local, regional and national businesses, as well as individuals and families. We have offices in St. Louis and Kansas City, and elsewhere in Missouri, Illinois and Kansas.
