Paris, 30th 2013

Lefèvre Pelletier & associés, Avocats (LPA) is delighted to announce the arrival of a new team dedicated to the industrial environment law and the creation of the first Industrial Environment and Real Estate Sustainable Development integrated department in Paris

Well-known in the field of Real Estate law and, in particular, of sustainable development, Lefèvre Pelletier & associés, Avocats welcomes a renowned team, specialized in industrial environment, from the firm Winston & Strawn.

Vincent Sol and Frédérique Chaillou, partners, join the firm Lefèvre Pelletier & associés, Avocats accompanied by Béatrice Parance, private law professor specialized in environment law and healthcare ; François Harrouët, counsel, Camille Jarry, senior associate and two other junior associates.

Gathering both skills, Lefèvre Pelletier & associés, Avocats and this team will form a new department: Industrial Environment and Real Estate Sustainable Development, comprising over fifteen lawyers including seven partners.

The new department will be co animated by Vincent Sol and Philippe Pelletier, President of the Sustainable Building Plan

Vincent Sol is member of the High Council for Regulated Facilities (CSIC) and was appointed in 2002 chairman of the Experts Group on Polluted Sites.

Eager to be on the forefront of the evolutions of environmental law, the creation of this department will enable increased synergies that have never been experienced before. The team will develop, amongst other things, concepts of sustainable management, reconversion of brownfields integrated to concepts of sustainable building and energy performance.

Lefèvre Pelletier & associés, Avocats (LPA), is currently one of the leading independent French business law firms.

With 120 lawyers and paralegals worldwide, including 28 partners, LPA assists its French and foreign clients thanks to the expertise and the complementarity of its teams skills relating to business law, both in consulting and litigation.

Its service offer encompasses several essential areas of business life: mergers and acquisitions, real estate, banking and finance, litigation and arbitration, taxation, employment, insurance, wealth and asset management, public and administrative law, environnement and sustainable development.
