FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

JOHN T. LYNCH ELECTED TO MASSACHUSETTS BAR FOUNDATION BOARD OF TRUSTEES

Boston, MA, March 18, 2015 — The Boston law firm of Davis, Malm & D'Agostine, P.C. is pleased to announce that John T. Lynch has been elected to a four-year term on the Board of Trustees of the Massachusetts Bar Foundation. The Massachusetts Bar Foundation's mission is to ensure equal access to the legal system in the Commonwealth for those most vulnerable. Last year, the Foundation distributed approximately $1.9 million to provide legal services for 63,000 people.

Mr. Lynch is a shareholder and member of the executive committee at Davis Malm. He practices in the business law area, focusing primarily on advising business organizations as general outside corporate counsel and representing them in corporate transactional work. Since 1986, Mr. Lynch has been legal counsel and a member of the Board of Directors for The Hundred Club of Massachusetts, Inc., a charity providing benefits to the surviving families of Massachusetts police officers and firefighters killed in the line of duty. He is also legal counsel to the Massachusetts Fallen Firefighters Memorial Fund, Inc.

Davis Malm has been a generous and longstanding supporter of the Massachusetts Bar Foundation and was the first law firm to sign on to the program launched in 2010 encouraging law firms to become involved with the Foundation and its mission. In 2013, the firm received the President's Award for its service to and support of the organization and the legal community. Davis Malm shareholder Laurence M. Johnson served two terms as President of the Foundation, in addition to several other leadership roles; Shareholders Thomas S. Fitzpatrick, Amy L. Fracassini, Thomas Frisardi, Robert J. Galvin, George A. Hewett, and Andrew D. Myers are Massachusetts Bar Foundation Fellows; and Shareholders William F. Griffin, Jr., Laurence M. Johnson and John T. Lynch are Life Fellows.
