David G. Kirby Joins Lewis, Rice & Fingersh

Lewis Rice LLC is pleased to announce David G. Kirby has joined the Firm as Of Counsel in the Jefferson City Office. David will focus his practice on governmental affairs and administrative law. Prior to joining Lewis Rice, David was an Assistant Attorney General and Senior Advisor to Missouri Attorney General Chris Koster. Additionally, he has worked with U.S. Senator Claire McCaskill and former U.S. Secretary of the Interior Ken Salazar.

Providing clients with meaningful solutions to major policy issues is an integral part of David's practice. He works with a broad range of decision makers and maintains strong relationships throughout Missouri's executive and legislative branches. Additionally, David's litigation experience offers clients a useful understanding of both the federal and state court systems.

"David's broad experience with legislative and administrative policy will enable him to provide a full range of services to our clients," said Corporate Department Chairman John Riffle. "His experience in navigating complex policy matters with competing interests will serve the Firm well. We are delighted to welcome David to the team."

Throughout our Firm's history, Lewis Rice attorneys have made excellence the foundation of our practice. Founded in 1909, more than a century of service has given us the experience, resources and tools to serve our clients' dynamic needs. Our diverse team of more than 150 attorneys provides counsel and solutions for the challenges facing local, regional and national businesses, as well as individuals and families. Lewis Rice maintains offices in downtown St. Louis, suburban Town & Country, and Washington, Missouri and Edwardsville, Illinois. We also have offices in downtown Kansas City, Missouri and suburban Overland Park, Kansas.
