Spotlight on Women's Networking!

Following an informal gathering of some of the ILN's female members during the 28th Annual conference in Boston, a Women's Networking initiative was created to help better connect the women of the ILN. This group has pre-conference lunches as well as a private LinkedIn group. Female members of the ILN are encouraged to connect in the private LinkedIn group and engage in relevant discussion, initiatives and share event information. To learn more about this group and how to become a member, email Lindsay Griffiths, Director of Global Relationship Management.
