ILN Partnership Event

CDR's Life Sciences Litigation Symposium 2019

June 18, Sofitel St. James, London

Our first event in this field, CDR's Life Sciences Litigation Symposium builds on our experience in delivering market-led content in a complex, contentious, and rapidly-changing sector, helping to safeguard life sciences portfolios against a backdrop of volatile market change, the constant need to meet enforcement priorities, and deliver commercial success.

CDR's Life Sciences Symposium encompasses views from the United Kingdom, remaining EU member states, and key jurisdictions of importance to industry stakeholders. It provides an ideal setting to discuss some of the most pressing issues in the fields of patent litigation, antitrust law, intellectual property strategy, data privacy and protection, and many others, with like-minded colleagues.

This event is suitable for life sciences businesses, such as pharmaceutical companies, biotech companies, healthcare providers, and medical devices manufacturers, and their regulators, as well as Lawyers, and associated legal practices.

Members of the International Lawyers Network will receive 20% off full-price tickets. Use code ILN20 at the checkout.

ILN Executive Highlighted in 2019 JD Supra Readers Choice Awards

On Wednesday, March 27th, the International Lawyers Network announced that Director of Global Relationship Management, Lindsay Griffiths, was recognized as a JD Supra Top Author, selected from among thousands of authors published in 2018, for the level of visibility and engagement she attained with readers on the topic of marketing & business development.
